This Undertaking is required to protect the goodwill of our clients' businesses in both buyers' and sellers' interests.

1. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by Hornblower Business Brokers Limited and/or the vendor (the "Disclosing Party") to you (the "Receiving Party") or which is otherwise communicated to or comes to the attention of the Receiving Party whether such information is in writing, oral or in any other form or media and whether such disclosure, communication or coming to the attention of the Receiving Party occurs prior to or during this Agreement, and includes, without limit:
 - a. any information which can be obtained by examination, testing or analysis of any hardware, any component part thereof, software or material samples provided by the Disclosing Party under the terms of this Agreement;
 - b. all information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party relating directly or indirectly to the Permitted Purpose;
 - c. the fact that the Parties are interested in or assessing the Permitted Purpose and/or are discussing the Permitted Purpose with each other;
 - d. the terms of any agreement reached by the Parties or proposed by any of the Parties (whether or not agreed) in connection with the Permitted Purpose ;and
 - e. all knowledge, information or materials (whether provided in hardcopy or electronic or other form or media) whether of a technical or financial nature or otherwise relating in any manner to the business affairs of the Disclosing Party (or any parent, subsidiary or associated company of that party) software, samples, devices, demonstrations, know-how or other materials of whatever description, whether subject to or protected by copyright, patent, trademark, registered or unregistered design.
2. You hereby undertake and agree as follows:
 - a. to hold the Confidential Information in confidence and not to disclose or permit it to be made available to any person, firm or company without our prior written consent;
 - b. to use the Confidential Information only for the purpose of assessing the proposed purchase of the Company (the "Permitted Purpose");
 - c. to ensure that each person to whom disclosure of the Confidential Information is made by you is fully aware in advance of your obligations under this Agreement and that, in the case of other potential syndicate members, each such person gives an undertaking in respect of the Confidential Information, in the terms of this Agreement;
 - d. upon written demand from us either to return the Confidential Information and any copies of it in whatever form or to confirm to us in writing that, save as required by law or regulation, it has been destroyed. You shall not be required to return reports, notes or other material prepared by you or on your behalf which incorporates Confidential Information ("Secondary Information") provided that the Secondary Information is kept confidential;
 - e. to keep confidential and not reveal to any person, firm or company the fact of your investigations into the Company or that discussions or negotiations are taking place or have taken place between us in connection with the proposed transaction or that potential acquirers are being sought for the Company; and
 - f. that no person gives any warranty or makes any representation as to the accuracy or otherwise of the Confidential Information, save as may subsequently be agreed in writing.
3. Nothing in this Agreement shall apply to any Confidential Information:
 - a. which, at the time of its disclosure, is in the public domain;
 - b. which you are required to disclose, retain or maintain by law or any regulatory or government authority. In this case, the disclosee shall inform the Disclosing Party in writing of the disclosure requirement as soon as practicably possible so that the broker and/or Vendor shall be able to take the necessary steps to control the conditions of such disclosure.
4. You undertake for a period of 24 months from the date of this Agreement that you will not initiate or engage in discussions with any person who is or has been an officer, employee or consultant of the Company during the period of your discussions with the Company or encourage them to end their relationship with the Company or solicit any customer of the Company in competition with the Company (unless such contact or approaches have been proven to have been made prior to and independently of this undertaking).
5. Damages may be a wholly inadequate measure of loss in the event of any breach of the terms of this Undertaking and accordingly we agree that in such event the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to seek specific enforcement of these terms (by injunction or otherwise) on such terms as any Court with jurisdiction may deem just and proper.
6. Any failure by the Disclosing Party at any time to enforce or exercise any of their rights under this Undertaking will not be construed as a waiver of their right to enforce or exercise that right in future or other rights under this Undertaking at any time.

- 7. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision or part of provision of this Undertaking shall not affect in any way the remaining provisions, which shall be construed as if such invalid or unenforceable part did not exist.
- 6. This agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with English law and the parties irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales in respect of any claim, dispute or difference arising out of or in connection with this agreement.
- 7. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as
 - a. creating an obligation on the Disclosing Party to disclose particular information;
 - b. creating an obligation on the Parties to negotiate; or
 - c. as a representation as to the accuracy, completeness, quality or reliability of the information and the Receiving Party should seek its own advice from an appropriately qualified professional.
